The Louisville Journal has no doubt but that a majority of the Republican party consists of men who were of Democratic antecedents. That is a very comical declaration. Where is the once powerful Whig party of the North? Have they changed their name and become Democrats, whilst the Democrats have deserted to the Republicans? The plain truth is, the Republican party simply replaces the Whig party of the North, and the Democrats hold their own now in every fair election. We can take the vote by counties, and we find in the main the same counties Democratic that have been so for the last twenty years. the relative difference between parties not being more than five or ten per cent.

Nearly the same Democratic vote that was polled in 1860 was polled last year, and in the same localities. Take the five or six thousand majority in Berks county, Pa., as an example, and about the same majority in Lancaster: the former Democratic, the latter, once Whig, now Republican. We may go through Pennsylvania, and take the counties one by one, where they were Democratic with a Whig opposition, and it will be found they are still Democratic, with a Republican opposition.

But it is not worth while to refute any statement so absurd. There stands the Democratic party in the North, with the same organization, the same public journals, and for the most part the same public men. A great ado is made over a Democrat when he goes over to the Republicans. He is put up for office; he is made chairman of public meetings. He is proclaimed an old-line Democrat, in order to enhance the merit of the gain they have made. At Milliken's Bend there are 350 free negroes, exclusive of soldiers. At Goodrich's Landing the explorer gained much valuable information. Eleven farms were worked by 2,775 free negroes, and fed by the Government. A physician had established a hospital, but was not doing much towards keeping the poor negro above ground. The negro complained badly, and said his new masters were worse than his old secesh masters. The lessees, Mr. Yateman learned, were "army sharks," and cared nothing for the poor negro.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

Prayer by Rev. John S. Hays. The journal of yesterday was read. RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The Congressional Committee on Ways and Means have under consideration an amendment of the "Internal Revenue Act," which amendment proposes to tax leaf tobacco twenty cents per pound, and also to increase the tax on all its manufactures; and whereas, it is computed that at least eighty millions of pounds of tobacco are now held in this State, which would be subject to this additional tax of twenty cents per pound, falling with great separity or many nortions of the State and severity on many portions of the State, and discriminating most prejudicially against this particular branch of agriculture—therefore Resolved by the General Assembly of the Comnessoved of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: 1. That the tax, as preposed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is greatly disproportional to the tax on other agricultural products and manifestly unjust to a great number of the agriculturists of this Commonwealth.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: 1. That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our members of the House of Representatives requested, to introduce and urge the passage of such law as will afford adequate relief to the loyal suffer-ers within this State, either by providing for a branch Court of Claims within and for the State of Kentucky, regulated as the Court of Claims is now by law regulated; or by giving to the United States District Court, for the District of Kentucky, jurisdiction in such cases, and of Kentucky, jurisdiction in such cases, and making the necessary appropriation to provide for the immediate payment of such judgments as may be wanted thereby; or, authorizing the State of Kentucky, through the medium of her own courts, to adjudicate, allow, and pay such claims, of the character aforesaid, as may be just, and providing for her reimbursement.

> himself sick and his daughters and aged wite unable to support themselves. This is in-deed hard! A day or two since a fashionably dressed lady visited his house (and others besides). She got out of her carriage, went in, told them where to call on her if they stood in need, promised them everything but did nothing, and was never heard from afterwards. Now, such instances of aristocratic generosity are be-coming quite frequent in the upper portion of the city, and by a class of people who pro-fess much willingness in their bestowment of favors—in words—but not in deeds. "Gentle words" often banish teardrops of sorrow from the downesst eye, and may soothe the griefs of a saddened heart; but words only will not keep poverty-stricken mothers and poor little children from starving or freezing to death this cold winter. I think so. I do hope that the "good work" will still go on, and that something will be done to speedily alleviate the sufferings of the poor in the upper portion of the city. Though (as I said) they have been neglected heretolore by those in authority: not from carelesaness, but in authority; not from carelessness, but because of their having no rightful knowledge of tneir condition, nor their place of habitation. W. S. H. Injustice of Court Martials-A Romance in Real Life. [From the Washington Republican.]

Not many days since, information reached the President that a young man belonging to the Army of the Potomac had been sentenced by court martial to be shot for desertion. The boy was doomed to die in a few hours when the dispatch was received. No time was to be lost. A telegram was sent to Gen. Meade suspending the execution. An exami-nation of the case was ordered by the President, when it was ascertained that the young man ought to have been promoted long ago for gallant and meritorious service, instead of being shot.

It appeared that upon the march of the army of the Potomac toward Maryland, on the occasion of Lee's first raid northward, the young man alluded to became exhausted and fell out of the ranks, and, as soon as he recovered, he proceeded on after his regiment, but not finding it and there heing no time to lose. ered, he proceeded on after his regiment, but not finding it, and there being no time to lose, he fell into the ranks of another regiment, and fought gallantly at South Mountain and Antietam, and was wounded in the last named battle. He was sent to the hospital, which fact, by the absence of a proper system in such cases, did not reach the officers of his regiment. At lest he was arrested as a deserter, tried, condemned, and was about to be shot, when, by the interference of the Executive, his life was saved, and a young man hastily condemned to an ignominious death was suddenly restored to honor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 4, 1864. The frequent outrages perpetrated in various parts of the State by lawless bands of maranders can, in a large degree, be traced to the active aid of rebel sympathizers in our midst, or their neglect to furnish to military commandants the information in their possession, which would lead to the defeat and contains of such maranders. capture of such marauders

Sympathizers with the rebellion who, while enjoying protection from the Government, abuse the leniency extended to them by con-cealing the movements of rebel guerrillas, by giving them information, affording them shelter, supplying them with provisions and oth erwise encouraging and fomenting private raids, are in criminal complicity with all the outrages perpetrated by the marauders whom they secretly countenance

It is in the power of persons whose sympa-thies are with the rebellion to p-event guerrilla raids, almost invariably, by furnishing to military officers of the United States or State of Kentucky the information which expe-rience has proved them to be, as a general thing, possessed of.

If all would unite, as is their duty, in putting down guerrillas, we would soou cease to be troubled with their raids. A neglect to afford all assistance and information which may ald in defeating the designs of maraud-ing parties can but be construed as a culpable and active assistance to our enemies I therefore request that the various milita-y commandants in the State of Kentucky him. Anderson went down to report, but no will, in every instance where a loval citizen i taken off by bands of guerrillas, immediately arrest at least five of the most prominent and active rebel sympathizers in the vicinity of and then a central committee, consisting of cleven members—one from each ward—making in all one hundred and twenty-one mem—

Let them learn that if they refuse to exert themselves actively for the assistance and protection of the loyal they must expect to reap the just fruits of their complicity with the enemies of our State

Message of Gov. Andrew, of Mass.

Volunteering Rapidly Progressing XXXVIIIth Congress-First Session. WASHINGTON, January 7.

SENATE. Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, introduced resolution providing for the expulsion of denator Davis, of Kentucky, owing to the sentiments put forth in a recent resolution by the latter, which, in the opinion of Mr. Wil-son, incluse people to treasonable insurrec-tion and rebellion.

Mr. Davis explained to the Scuate that the auguage quoted in Mr. Wilson's resolution was a garbled version of his own resolution. What he (Dayis) proposed was that the people should rise at the polls and take the power of this Government into their own hands. le (Davis) repeated that the terms of Mr Wilson's resolution were against the terms of Mr. Wilson's resolution were against the terms of his owe, and were false in fact.

The subject was then passed over, and the Scuate resumed the consideration of the bill in amendment of the enrollment act.

A debate followed on the $300 commutation clause.

Mr. Lane, of Indians, advocated its repeal.

Mr. Wilson opposed striking it out, and believed the country would sustain him. He believed the term of service ought to be educed from three years to eighteen months

Without a vote the Senate went into execu-ive session, and subsequently adjourned. Boston, January 8. The annual message of Gov. Andrew was delivered to day. It is very lengthy and com-prehensive. The receipts into the State reasury for the year were $7,229,823, and the payments in the same time were $7,283,597. The establishment of a military academy under the patronage of the Commonweatth is urged. The total number of men furnished to the land service by Massachusetts previous to October, 1863, was seventy five thousand six hundred and eight.

Gov. Andrew argues at length in favor of

Gov. Andrew argues at length in favor of recruiting our wasted regiments in the field. He says that whenever one community can furnish volunteers for our armies, and other communities can afford to pay them to come out cannot afford to spare their own men from their own industry, the simplest politi-CELEBRATED PREMIUM al economy teaches wastefulness in refusing to allow these balances to be adjusted by the aw of supply and demand.

Gov. Andrew closes as follows:

THESE MACHINES WERE AWARDED THE The great proclamation of liberty will lift the rulers who uttered it to our nation and our age above all vulgar destiny. The bell our age above all vulgar destiny. The bell which rung out the Declaration of Independence has found at last a voice to articulate and proclaim it throughout the land and to all the inhabitants thereof. It has been heard across oceans, and has modified the sentiments of cabinets and kings. The people of the Old World have heard it, and they stop to catch a whisper of its echoes.

The poor slave has heard it with abounding joy. Tempered by the mystery of religion, he worships and adores the waiting continent. He has heard it and already foresees the fulfilled prophecy when she will set redeemed and regenerated and disentralled by the graces of universal emunipation.

Mr. ALF. ALLEN offered the following resas, which were adopted:

Mr. ALF. ALLEN off-red the following resolutions, which were adopted:

The tobacco interest of Kentucky is at this time its most important one, from which wealth flows to the State and General government, and comfort and prosperty to the clitizens. It is a crop, the place of which, to the poor man and small farmer, cannot be supplied, for its production requires but a small territory and a limited force. By it the poor man purchases his groceries, pays his taxes, and educates his children. It fills the treasury of the State, so that Kentucky can render efficient aid to the government in conquering the existing rebellion. It yields a large revenue to the government under the income tax law. It takes but little, if anything, from the production of grain, as its cultivation requires but little effort until the grain crops are out of the way. It employs women and children, who, otherwise, could be of but little service on the farm. It is a luxury, it is true, but finding its consumers abroad, it brings home the wealth of foreign lands. It supplies (to a certain extent) the place of gold and sterling exchange, at a time when these necessaries of commerce are so sca ce and difficult to be had. And yet this Legisliture has heard with astonishment acd disa ay that it has been recommended to the General Government to put an additional tax upon the article of manufactured tobacco. This policy would destroy the formers now engaged in its production—wherefore, 1. Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That an additional tax on the manufactured tobacco of the United States would result disastrously to the tobacco would be desired. njurious to the State and to the nation, and u inous to a large portion of their citizens. 2. That this Legislature earnestly remonstrates with Congress against the imposition of these or tny other taxes on tobacco, whether manufac-ured or in leaf, and that our Senators be instructed, and our Representatives he requested, to use every effort to prevent this monstrous injustice and oppressive folly.

3 That copies of these resolutions be forward-ed to each of our Senators and Representatives in

Respectfully, Your obedient servants. -Wood is $10 per cord in Indianapolis.

-The recent meeting of the Indiana Promological Society, at Indianapolis, was a great success.

-Lieut. Col. Rose, Lieut. C. C. McDowell, Capt. N. A. Logan, Lieut. J. M. Robison, Lleut. R. H. Stott, Captain John Whitsett. Lieut. W. J. Wallace, of the Twenty-sixth Indiana regiment, are in Jail at Tyler, Texas. They were taken at the battle of Morganza Bend.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY IN ST. JOSEPH COUN-TY, IND .- The South Bend Register relates Madison township, St. Joseph county, Ind : Jacob Schriner and Adam Snowberger, both married men, lived near neighbors, and it is said that Schriner had been living in criminal intimacy with Snowberger's wife, criminal intimacy with Snowberger's wife, Agnes. About three weeks ago Snowberger suddenly disappeared, and on inquiries being made as to his whereabouts, Schriner replied that he supposed he had gone to the army or to Onio to visit his father. On the 22d ult., Schriner's wife, Elizabeth, died very suddenly, and was buried the next day. Suspicious of foul play were aroused among the neighbors, and Schriner was arrested. Search was made and Snowberger's body was found in a brush heap, twenty or thirty rods from Schribrush heap, twenty or thirty rods from Schri-ner's house, his head split open with the sharp edge of an axe. Schriner confesses that he killed Snowber-ger, while working together, without any quarrel or provocation whatever. He says he was put up to it by Snowberger's wife; that he was to kill Snowberger, and she to kill his (Schriner's) wife. Mrs. Snowberger has been arrested on the charge of poisoning Schriner's wife, and both she and Schrine were brought to South Bend, and lodged in the county jail.

FINANCE AND TRADE

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT, FRIDAY EVENING, January 8th, 1864. The Money market continues easy, most of our banks taking nearly all the good business paper of their cusomers running not over 90 days at 6 per cent., and all ime bills on the East, inside of 4 months, at about 9 per ent, off, but few loans, however, are asked for, Exchange is abundant but the quantity of currency appears to be again plenty.

Gold is higher again.
We quote city vouchers at 2@3 per cent. discount; ap. proved country vouchers, payable in Louisville and Cincinnati, 4@5 off. Checks on Washington for certificates we quote at 1%@2 per cent, discount. The almost entire absence of transactions during this old weather compels us to leave our figures almost en tirely unchanged.

For particulars of currency matters see specie and bank note list. Markets Carefully Corrected Daily. FLOUR-There is no special activity in the Flour market, but prices are unchanged. We quote superfine a $4 25@5; extra $5@5 50; extra family $6 25@6 50, and fancy brands at $7@8. WHEAT-The receipts to-day have been extremely light, but prices continue at about our previous quota-tions, We quote Mediterranean and Alabama red at Corn-New is steady at 95c@$1, from wagons, an OATS-Continue scarce at 75@80c, with a very light
